The Benjamin G. Gardiner
Rindge Faculty Federation Memorial Scholarship
Application Deadline: March 1, 2012

Essay-Based Scholarship
Up to 3 awards of $500-$2,000

To be eligible for an RFF Scholarship, you must be:

- A Franklin Pierce University student with a relative or acquaintance who is a member of an AFL-CIO-affiliated union (including NH Federation of Teachers & local chapters)
- A student in good standing with a GPA of at least 2.4

Application Process

Please submit:

- A cover sheet with your essay title, name, Franklin Pierce University email address and the union affiliation of your relative/acquaintance. Do not include your name anywhere except on the cover sheet.

- An essay of at least five double-spaced pages on Union membership as experienced by your selected relative/acquaintance. Your essay must include documentation of an interview with your relative/acquaintance and may be supported by scholarly and/or other external sources.

Hard copy ONLY to: Professor Andrea M. Bergstrom, RFF Secretary
Department of Mass Communication, Fitzwater Center