MONADNOCK INSTITUTE PLACE SCHOLAR APPLICATION

Awarded to an FPU student who has demonstrated an aptitude and commitment to the study of place and is interested in deepening his/her engagement with place and community in the region. For more information about the study of place, visit www.franklinpierce.edu/monadnockinstitute or call John Harris at 899-4010. Applicants must submit a proposal which outlines a place-focused project to be accomplished in the next academic year. Note: This project may relate to and expand on existing course/thesis work.

The selection committee will review the design and scope of the project proposal, relevant coursework, internships, work-study experience and past academic performance. The Monadnock Institute Place Scholar will receive a $1,000 award.
