Candidate for the Honorary Degree

Dr. Tia Brown McNair

Doctor of Humane Letters

Dr. Tia Brown McNair is deeply committed to the work of advancing racial equity and dismantling the false perception that there is a hierarchy of human value. She knows both require truth-telling, deep listening, courageous leadership, and of course, action. She also knows these efforts cannot just be transactional – to make a true impact, they need to be transformational. A team-oriented leader, Dr. McNair has earned the trust of her colleagues and her peers across academia by always seeking to do the right thing for those most impacted by inequities.

Dr. McNair currently serves as the vice president in the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Student Success and as executive director for the Truth, Racial Healing, and Transformation Campus Centers at the American Association of Colleges and Universities (AAC&U) in Washington, D.C. She also directs AAC&U's Summer Institutes on High-Impact Practices and Student Success.

Through her work with AAC&U, Dr. McNair's thought leadership ensures student success has transformed the approaches higher education institutions take, from being passive players in equity efforts to proactive participants in student learning with inclusive excellence as a focus. New Hampshire colleges and universities, including Franklin Pierce University, have benefited from Dr. McNair's expertise.

In early 2022, the Franklin Pierce University community had the privilege of learning firsthand from Dr. McNair, when she served as a keynote speaker for the faculty and staff professional development series. Her insights helped propel and shape the University's Equity First Initiative, and Dr. McNair's guidance inspired our "Learning While" series, which explores our students' challenges and triumphs as they progress through their college careers. The series of student conversations are aimed at providing a more accessible and equitable educational experience. By better understanding each student's unique journey, we are better able to support them as their whole, authentic selves.

Dr. McNair is the lead author of two scholarly books for higher education professionals, both of which have become roadmaps for colleges and universities seeking to create more equitable learning environments.

Dr. McNair is a true example of the AAC&U's mission to "advance the vitality and public standing of liberal education by making quality and equity the foundations for excellence in undergraduate education in service to democracy."

Candidate for the Honorary Degree

Steven V. Camerino

Doctor of Humane Letters

Steven Camerino is dedicated to service and sharing his time and talents with a host of organizations, including Franklin Pierce University's Board of Trustees. He served as a Trustee for 10 years from 2012 to 2022, and from 2016 to 2019 served as Chair of the Board. In this role, Mr. Camerino offered selfless leadership in navigating an ever-changing higher education landscape and was a trusted advisor when the University appointed a new President in 2016.

As Chair, he initiated the restructuring of the Board's standing committees to better align with institutional priorities and introduced and led the new Strategic and Long Range Planning Committee. These efforts have enhanced critical Board engagement with the University's strategic directions. His vocal advocacy for diversity, equity, and inclusion became an integral theme in the University's Pierce@60 strategic plan, which drove the establishment of the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.

Mr. Camerino is widely recognized and respected as an expert in the energy and public utilities field. He has long served New Hampshire's energy sector admirably, first as an attorney representing major energy and utility clients for over 30 years and then as president and CEO of the New Hampshire Electric Cooperative (NHEC).

During his years with the NHEC, the state's second-largest electric utility, Mr. Camerino spearheaded the strategic planning process to transform the cooperative's revenue and delivery models while shifting the organizational culture to best meet the needs of consumers. His colleagues credit Mr. Camerino with shepherding the cooperative through some of its most challenging times, always with the customers' best interests in mind.

After transforming the NHEC, Steve returned to the McLane Middleton law firm as CEO in 2021, where he previously served as a shareholder and managing director of the firm's Concord office and chaired the Energy, Utilities, and Telecommunications Practice Group.

Mr. Camerino has been a catalyst for the United Way fundraising campaign in Merrimack County and served as president of New Hampshire Legal Assistance and Legal Advice and Referral Center, both of which assist low-income clients. He is an esteemed recipient of the New Hampshire Bar Association's L. Jonathan Ross Award for Legal Services to the Poor.

Above all, Mr. Camerino is admired for his integrity, his capacity to thoughtfully evaluate opposing viewpoints, his collaborative management style, his sense of humor, and his ability to bring out the best in those around him.

The Honorable Walter R. Peterson Citizen Leader Award

The Honorable Walter R. Peterson Citizen Leader Award was created to honor the late Governor Peterson's lifelong commitment to public service and higher education in the state of New Hampshire. He served two terms as the Governor of New Hampshire and was Franklin Pierce University's second President from 1975-1995. He also was President Emeritus of the University until his passing in 2011. This award, presented at the annual Commencement Exercises, is intended to acknowledge and to honor an individual for his or her extraordinary commitment to public service, selfless contributions to higher education, sense of humor, and high moral character — all characteristics of the award's namesake.

JerriAnne Creary Boggis

JerriAnne Creary Boggis has served for the last decade as executive director of the Black Heritage Trail of New Hampshire, an organization that preserves, celebrates, and honors African American history in the state. Through her perseverance and persistence, she works to correct the historical record on the racial complexity and richness of New Hampshire's diverse past, making sure people understand the "lessons in what's lost when history is told from a single point of view."

Much like Governor Peterson, Ms. Boggis is known for her commitment to public service, focusing her time and talents on social justice initiatives. She has an innate ability to speak truth to power and is widely respected for her grace and commitment to facilitating the difficult conversations that examine the "hard history" of race, empowering others to address the challenges of the future.

Franklin Pierce is honored to have shared reading selections and posters on the Rindge Campus from the Black Heritage Trail's series of New Hampshire Black History Stories. The series offers our students and campus visitors a broader look at our state's history, celebrating its diversity and the pioneers who laid the foundation for the equity and inclusion work that still continues today throughout New Hampshire.

Ms. Boggis is also the founder and director of The Harriet Wilson Project, which is devoted to honoring the New Hampshire native, who was the first Black woman in the United States to publish a novel. Ms. Boggis led the fundraising effort to build a life-sized memorial to honor Ms. Wilson, which now stands in Milford, New Hampshire.

Ms. Boggis is the recipient of numerous awards, including the Social Innovation Leader Award in the nonprofit sector by the Entrepreneurs Fund of New Hampshire, and was named a Freedom Fighter by Seacoast NAACP and, in 2020, was listed as one of the 10 most influential women of the century in New Hampshire by the Seacoast Press.

Franklin Pierce University Alma Mater

Lyrics: William Ball, Professor Emeritus

Arrangement: David Brandes, Professor Emeritus

Franklin Pierce, Franklin Pierce,
We remember well.
Small and grand, you will stand,
We remember well.

Friends we knew, there we grew,
All our dreams at hand,
Mountain, pond, skies of blue,
Grand Monadnock's land.

Beacon bright, time will tell,
In our thoughts you'll dwell,
In our hearts, Franklin Pierce,
We remember well.

Academic Regalia

Caps and gowns are a link with the early universities of the Middle Ages. In a time when all students were clerics, the gown and its attached hood served the dual function of keeping the student warm in unheated buildings and of identifying the particular order to which he belonged.

Modern academic regalia in the United States is based on an intercollegiate code established in 1895. The gown is commonly black, differing slightly according to the level of the degree. The baccalaureate gown has long pointed sleeves and is worn closed. The master's gown is designed to be worn open or closed and is distinguished by its oblong sleeve open at the wrist. The doctoral gown also may be worn open or closed. It has long, bell-shaped sleeves and is paneled in velvet with three matching velvet bars on the sleeves. The velvet may be black or a color distinctive of the degree conferred: Ph.D., blue; M.D., green; etc. Trustees wear doctoral gowns.

Caps are usually of the mortarboard style and are retained on the head throughout all academic exercises except during prayer when the men should remove them. The tassel on the mortarboard cap may be black or of the color indicating the degree. The doctor's tassel is gold. The tassel is worn over the left front quarter of the cap once the degree has been awarded.

The hoods are satin lined with the colors of the institution which conferred the degree; Franklin Pierce hoods are crimson and gray satin. The color of the velvet border indicates the subject to which the degree pertains.
