

Earth Week 2012

Keynote Speaker: Tracie Smith
Sustainable Food & Community
Supported Agriculture

Events you won't want to miss!

All week

Raffle featuring gift certificates to local businesses, glass art, and great stuff!
Prize drawing at the Sustainability Fair on Friday, April 20.
10% Discount at FPU Bookstore on sustainability related books and products.

Monday April 16	Trail Cleanup with Director of Campus Recreation, Doug Carty. Have fun in the outdoors while doing something great for the Earth and our campus community.	Noon - 2 p.m. The Bubble
	Eco Rangers Orientation & Recognition with Intern Becca Souza and the Eco Rangers. Learn how Eco Rangers are helping us save energy and keep our Climate Commitment!	11 a.m. - 12 p.m. Alumni Lounge
	Community Garden Planning Meeting: Get your hands dirty (maybe literally) and join the effort to plan, grow and sustain a community garden on campus. Open to all community members.	2 - 4 p.m. Cheshire Comm. Room
Tuesday April 17	Earth Week Coffee House/Open Mic Featuring musical talent from FPU & beyond. Organic, shade-grown coffee, local cream and raw sugar!	7 - 9 p.m. Hampshire Room
	Recycling Tour at Monadnock Disposal with Operations Manager Matt Peard. Follow the waste stream and see the economic & environmental benefits of recycling.	10 a.m. Shuttle stop
	Sustainability and Spirituality with Assoc. Director of Spiritual Life, Bill Beardslee. Explore the connection between sustainability and spirituality in an open circle discussion.	Noon - 1:30 p.m. Monadnock Lounge
Wednesday April 18	Premier of The Word on Recycling at FPU. A short film by Matt Taylor, featuring FPU Administration and community.	6:30 - 9 p.m. Lakeside Education Center
	Film Showing & Discussion: Plastic Planet "At once scary and engaging, Plastic Planet is the best kind of advocacy documentary." Film Journal Intl.
	Trail Cleanup with Director of Campus Recreation, Doug Carty Have fun in the outdoors while doing something great for the Earth and our campus community.	Noon - 2 p.m. The Bubble
	Campus Energy Tour with Director of Facilities, Doug Lear. See how our wood pellet boilers are reducing our climate impact.	2 - 4 p.m. Granite Hall
	Sustainable Food & Community Supported Agriculture Keynote Address by Tracie Smith, Entrepreneur, Advocate and Farmer at Tracie's Community Farm/CSA.	6:30 - 8 p.m. Spagnuolo Hall
Thursday April 19	Concert by The Cosmic Dust Bunnies This 4-piece danceable electronic jam band will carry you to a happy space.	8 - 10 p.m. Spagnuolo Hall
	Renewable Energy Tours with Prof. Gary Heald. Gary Heald has never paid an electric bill in his life. Check out passive solar, photovoltaic panels and more.	10 a.m.-12 p.m. and 1 - 3 p.m. Shuttle stop
	Trail Cleanup with Director of Campus Recreation, Doug Carty. Have fun in the outdoors while doing something great for the Earth and our campus community.	Noon - 2 p.m. The Bubble
Friday April 20	Tribal Fusion Belly Dance with Sue Rolke. Get your tribe on! Modern blend of tribal styles and earthy movement to strengthen your core.	4 - 5:30 p.m. Cheshire Comm. Room
Friday April 20	Sustainability Fair Featuring Enviro Science & Sustainability Certificate student projects, kids' activities and raffle drawing!	11 a.m. - 3 p.m. Spagnuolo Hall
Saturday April 21	Spring Carnival Fly your green recycled Frisbee, then use it as a plate for the picnic and help spread the Earth Week love!
Sunday April 22	Earth Day Hike with Monadnock Institute Scholar Jen Bell. Explore the trails and spend some time with Mother Nature.	1-3 p.m. Adventure Rec Hut

Earth Week is a time to promote Earth awareness and action.

For more information or to get involved: SustainabilityCoordinator@FranklinPierce.edu / ext. 4175